CAR OF THE YEAR ELECTION MAINTAINED AND BROADCASTED ONLINE ONLY ON MONDAY AT 3PM

---

Despite of the cancellation of the Geneva International Motor Show, the organizers have decided to broadcast the Car of the Year award ceremony via live-streaming on Monday, March 2, at 3 p.m. on the website. No journalists will be accepted on-site. The award will be presented by Frank Janssen, President of the Jury and car journalist from the German magazine Stern.

Seven candidates are part of the list of nominees for the Car of the Year 2020:

- BMW 1-Series
- Ford Puma
- Peugeot 208
- Porsche Taycan
- Renault Clio
- Tesla Model 3
- Toyota Corolla

Frank Janssen will present the final round of voting. Jury members will have to award 25 points, spread over at least five of the seven models. This will take place on Monday, 2 March 2020 at Palexpo. It will be broadcasted live on the Geneva International Motor Show website and on the #GimsSwiss Facebook page. This will enable you to discover the winner in real time.

Car of the Year is organized by seven major magazines in Europe: Auto in Italy, Autocar in the United Kingdom, Autopista in Spain, Autovisie in the Netherlands, L'Automobile Magazine in France, Stern in Germany and Vi Bilägare in Sweden. The 60 best reporters from 23 countries in Europe's automotive world voted for the winner.
